

Aghora Mantra – To Remove Ghosts, Evil Entites (Exorcism)

Aghora mantra is used to get blessings from the angry avatar of Lord Shiva. It is a request to Lord Shiva to take on his fierce and angry form and come to our assistance. It is used to fight influences from evil ghosts, bad planetary positions, enemies, etc. It is very beneficial to repeat the mantra 21 times while holding a copper pot full of water in your right hand, and then drinking the water or sprinkling it on family members. This will help to safeguard life and property.

Get Lord Shiva's Infinite Blessings

After you finish bathing in the evening, light a lamp in front of Lord Shiva's photo. Now place a small bowl of ghee in front of the lamp. Take a fistful of washed rice and keep it in a plate. Now sit in front of the lamp with your family and make each member keep some rice in front of them as told above. Take a grain of rice in your right hand , in between the thumb and ring finger, and chant the following mantra :

ఓం నమః శివాయ మహారుద్రాయ మహాదేవాయ నమః:
Om Namah Shivaya MahaRudraya MahaDevaya Namah

ॐ नमः शिवाय महारुद्राया महादेवाय नमः

Place the grain of rice into the bowl of ghee after each time that you chant the above MahaShiva Mantra. After the rice finishes, light camphor in front of the lamp and pray to Lord Shiva sincerely, asking him to shower his divine grace on your family. Then give the ghee and rice to ants and birds by spreading it in an open area. This ritual will help to atone for your sins and Lord Shiva's blessings will remove all your diseases, poverty and miseries.

Special Mahamrityunjaya Mantra Ritual - peace, love, success and happiness

Mrityunjaya mantra is one of the most powerful mantras of Lord Shiva. Lord Shiva is said to be easily appeased when called upon with this mantra. The mrityunjaya mantra can be used for various purposes based on the associated rituals. The following is a simple ritual that can be done by couples to bring back peace, love and happiness into their life. In the morning, after bathing, sit in front of a photo of lord shiva. Place a lamp beside the photo and light it. Keep a clean plate in front of the lamp. Now take two small pots and place them on the plate. Fill the pot to the right with water (about 150ml). Now take a tulsi leaf in your right hand and hold it with your ring finger and thumb. Dip the tulsi leaf into the water present in the pot and then hold it over the other pot, letting the water drops fall into the empty pot. Chant the Mrityunjaya Mantra while letting the water fall into the empty pot. Keep repeating the Mrityunjaya Mantra in a slow pace as you continue the ritual. Maintain a constant rhythm for the mantra and the ritual. Have an image of Lord Shiva as the great Mrityunjaya (the one who has victory over death). Repeat the ritual until all the water is transferred from one pot to the other. The ritual can be especially effective for couples who want to overcome miseries or difficulties in their life. The ritual can be started by the husband and then continued by the wife. After the ritual is over, the family members can drink the water while chanting Om Namah Shivaya thrice. Practise this ritual on a saturday or morning. With the infinite grace of Lord Mrityunjaya, your family will be blessed with happiness and all your miseries will be overcome.
